

The UK-Jamaica Investment Forum 2010

MANDARIN ORIENTAL HOTEL, HYDE PARK

On Thursday, 11th of March, 2010, the Second UK-Jamaica investment Forum took place at the Mandarin Oriental, Hyde Park hotel.

The Forum, hosted jointly by Jamaica Trade & Invest (JTI) and Developing Markets Associates (DMA), was attended by over 150 delegates. The Jamaican Government was represented by Audley Shaw, Minister of Finance and Public Service, and Michael Stern, Minister of State for the Ministry of Industry, Investment and Commerce as well as Bryan Wynter, Jamaica's Central Bank Governor. Jamaica's Acting High Commissioner, Joan Thomas-Edwards opened the event which included keynote presentations from the European Commission and several major businesses. Levi Roots, of Dragons' Den fame, gave an excellent guest speech about the role of Jamaicans in Diaspora.

Click here for conference programme and speaker presentations

(presentations will be linked to speakers on the programme)

