

The Second UK-Jamaica Investment Forum

*Mandarin Oriental, London
March 11th, 2010*

The Forum, hosted jointly by JTI and DMA, was attended by over 150 delegates.

The Jamaican Government was represented by Audley Shaw, Minister of Finance and Public Service, and Michael Stern, Minister of State for the Ministry of Industry, Investment and Commerce as well as Bryan Wynter, Jamaica's Central Bank Governor

The Second UK-Jamaica Investment Forum

*Mandarin Oriental, London
March 11th, 2010*

Jamaica's Acting High Commissioner, Joan Thomas-Edwards opened the event which included keynote presentations from the European Commission and several major businesses.

Levi Roots, gave an excellent guest speech about the role of Jamaicans in Diaspora.

